

At the library

Just a reminder to those who signed up to attend this month's Try It Club; the meeting is this Thursday and starts 6 p.m. at the Calhoun Memorial Library. Attendees will be learning how to crochet.

Try It Club is a craft and activity night, held on the second Thursday of the month. Each month a new activity will be tried. So far, participants have learned to make soap and homemade pasta. Materials are provided by the library. The event is free, but to attend a session requires a RSVP to director@calhounmemoriallibrary.org.

Teens and tweens looking for something to do during spring break are invited to the library's Teen Time. The program runs from 4-5 p.m. and is held the first and third Fridays of the month. Projects have included making string art, rock painting and soap making. For those interested in attending, sign up by emailing Emily Resendiz, Calhoun Memorial Library director, at director@calhounmemoriallibrary.org.

The program is free and includes a snack.

And for those kids ages 9-12, the library is starting a program for pre-teens. The free event will be held the second Friday of each month from 4-5 p.m. The focus is on entrepreneurship and craft making. For more information contact Emily D'Angelo at emilytomasik@gmail.com.

"The Bad Weather Friend," by Dean Koontz. Despite a hellish childhood, Benny Catspaw is a happy-go-lucky kind of guy. He has a sunny outlook on life. That is, until life starts kicking him in the teeth. First, he loses his job, then his reputation, then his fiancée. Someone, Benny thinks, is out to get him. Thanks to an inheritance from an uncle he's never heard of Benny is going to get some payback. Help comes in the form of a giant of a "bad weather friend" named Spike who will find the people who have it out for Benny. He'll deal with them using his terrifying presence and chilling methods of intimidation. With Spike is Harper, an intriguing young detective-in-training. With these two at his side, Benny's quiet life revs into high-speed adventures, of the sort that a nice guy like Benny could never imagine.
